

LAKELAND COMMUNITY CARE LTD

CARING FOR OUR COMMUNITY

WELCOME

Lakeland Community Care is a leading health and social care provider in Northern Ireland. We have been delivering high-quality care for 25 years. Based in Belcoo in County Fermanagh, and with a sub office in Omagh and Enniskillen, we offer a range of home care (domiciliary) services and day care in the community.

We cater for a diverse client base supporting older people, those with long-term conditions, physical and learning disabilities and people with mental ill-health.

Our mission is to improve the health and well-being of those most vulnerable and in need, providing opportunities for them to live happy and healthy lives at home and in their local community.

With a focus on quality, our dedicated team are passionate about their roles and strive to make a positive difference to our clients' lives each and every day.

Lakeland Community Care Ltd. is overseen by the Regulation & Quality Improvement Authority, has 'Investors in People' accreditation and all staff are registered with Northern Ireland Social Care Council.

As a registered charity, we are committed to providing wider social and public benefit, investing in community engagement and support programmes. With delight, we opened our flagship Healthy Living Centre in 2015 and since then have been widening our reach within the community, designing innovative responses to health inequalities.

Our governing Board of Directors/Trustees of the charity, give freely of their time to lead the organisation, providing specialist skills in health and social care, finance, law, management and community development. They bring dynamism and determination, continually striving to 'do more' to help individuals in our community live 'well'.

Embracing a person-centred approach Lakeland Community Care is committed to providing quality care and complimentary wrap-around community support services now and into the future.

Thank you for taking the time to find out more about us.
